

Description

Native status: Oklahoma

Straight Species: Yes

WETLAND STATUS: Great Plains- FAC

(Facultative Plants)-Equally likely to occur in wetlands and non-wetlands (estimated probability 34% - 66%)

Genus: Aquilegia

Species: canadensis

Family: Ranunculaceae

Host- Columbine Duskywing

Ht- w/bloom up to 2'

Nodding bell-like flowers of Wild Columbine signal spring in their bright red and yellow colors. Favored by bumblebees and hummingbirds, this columbine thrives in most conditions and prefers mesic soils. An easy and attractive plant for natural areas or garden beds.