

Description

Native status: Oklahoma

Straight Species: Yes

WETLAND STATUS: Great Plains- FACW

(Facultative Wetland Plants)-Usually occur in wetlands (estimated probability 67% - 99%)but may occur in non-wetlands(estimated probability 1% - 33%)

Genus: Eryngium

Species: yuccifolium

Family: Apiaceae

Host plant- Black swallowtails, moths

Eryngium yuccifolium is a unique member of the Carrot or Parsley Family. This robust perennial resembles a desert plant and is often compared to a yucca.

Plants originate from a sturdy taproot.