

Dalea purpurea 'Purple Prairie Clover

Description

Native status: Oklahoma

WETLAND STATUS: Great Plains- NI

Genus:Dalea Species:purpuerea Family:Fabaceae

*Host- caterpillars of Dogface sulfur butterflies.

Unbranched multi-stemmed perennial wildflower that grows from a stout taproot. The species is most common in the Great Plains and is absent from the east and west coasts.