

Sisyrinchium albidum 'White blue-eyed grass

Description

Native status: L48

Straight species: Yes

WETLAND STATUS: Great Plains- FACU

(Facultative Upland Plants)-Usually occur in non-wetlands (estimated probability 67% - 99%) but may occur in wetlands (estimated probability 1% - 33%)

Family: Iridaceae (Iris Family)

Genus: Sisyrrinchium

Species: albidum

A stiff, grass-like, clump-forming plant, 8-15 in. tall. White to blue, six-petaled, star-like flowers with yellow centers occur in loose clusters at the top of each flowering stem

Bloom Color: White , Yellow , Blue , Purple

Bloom Time: Mar , Apr , May , Jun

Native Habitat: Prairies; sand hills; open woods